How We Made This Book for You
We made this book exclusively for you using patented Print on Demand technology.
First we scanned the original rare book using a robot which automatically flipped and photographed each page.
We automated the typing, proof reading and design of this book using Optical Character Recognition (OCR) software on the scanned copy. That let us keep your cost as low as possible.
If a book is very old, worn and the type is faded, this can result in typos or missing text. This is also why our books don't have illustrations; the OCR software can't distinguish between an illustration and a smudge.
We understand how annoying typos, missing text or illustrations, foot notes in the text or an index that doesn't work, can be. That's why we provide a free digital copy of most books exactly as they were originally published. Simply go to our website (www.general-books.net) to check availability. And we provide a free trial membership in our book club so you can get free copies of other editions or related books.
OCR is not a perfect solution but we feel it's more important to make books available for a low price than not at all. So we warn readers on our website and in the descriptions we provide to book sellers that our books don't have illustrations and may have typos or missing text. We also provide excerpts from each book to book sellers and on our website so you can preview the quality of the book before buying it.
If you would prefer that we manually type, proof read and design your book so that it's perfect, simply contact us for the cost. We would be happy to do as much work as you would be like to pay for.

Limit of Liability/Disclaimer of Warranty:
The publisher and author make no representations or warranties with respect to the accuracy or completeness of the book. The advice and strategies in the book may not be suitable for your situation. You should consult with a professional where appropriate. The publisher is not liable for any damages resulting from the book.
Please keep in mind that the book was written long ago; the information is not current. Furthermore, there may be typos, missing text or illustration and explained above.

A COMPLETE HEBREW-ENGLISH POCKET-DICTIONARY TO THE OLD TESTAMENT

To PROFESSOR A. A. BEVAN, M. A., of Trinity College, Cambridge this little volume is dedicated by an old friend

PREFACE

The present Pocket-Dictionary, containing the whole vocabulary of the Hebrew Old Testament, does not pretend to be an enrichment of Lexico graphy, nor is it meant to supersede a scientific Lexicon. But it will, perhaps, be welcome to beginners as a cheap and trustworthy help, and even to advanced students, who know how to avail themselves of a more copious Dictionary, as a commodious implement when there is no larger work at hand.

The transcription given with each word, and besides in a few cases where there may arise any doubt as to the right pronunciation, is adapted to the well-known phonetic system of the Publishing Finn. It is based upon the pronunciation of the Sephardim, or Jews of Western Europe.

The Pocket-Dictionaries, published under the title of "Fonolexika Langenscheidt", are equipped in all re spects with every advantage which modern lexicography can offer. In their handy size, their large type, and the thoroughness and scholarship of their contents, the series is far ahead of any hitherto placed on the market.

Phonetic notation.

One of the chief advantages of these small and handy volumes is to be found in the careful indication of the pronunciation according to the phonetic system of Toussaint-Langenscheidt, which, being simple and easily understood, is unequalled for clearness and accu racy. The pronunciation of every word is given ac cording to this system. Thus in the German-English and French-English part and vice versa this phonetic notation is a mark of distinction not possessed by any other similar dictionary.

Grammatical treatment.

a) In the case of every word which admits of being conjugated or declined, reference is made to an appendix containing models of Conjugations and Declensions, where the reader will find information on all doubtful points.

b) The construction has been indicated, so that the beginner may have no difficulty in knowing what case or preposition is governed by any particular word c) The latest orthography has been adopted throughout.

d) Small or capital letters have been employed as correct usage requires.

Vocabulary.

The Fonolexika Langenscheidt contain each about 1000 pages, and some 50,000 headings. In addition to the ordinary words of literary and colloquial use special attention is given to: a) commercial, technical, and sporting expressions, in so far as they are met with in every-day life: b) peculiarities of dialect, idiomatic atid other ex pressions, of frequent occurence; c) the most important proper names, in so far as they present difficulties in the foreign language; d) the most important phrases.

Clearness and Distinctness.

The practical arrangement of the rich vocabulary renders it an easy task to find any word or meaning required. In addition to the purely alphabetical order of the vocabulary facility of reference is considerably assisted by the following expedients: a) different kinds of type; b) pictured signs, such as 0 = machinery term; = mining term; X = military term; = nautical term; = botanical term; = commercial term; ii = railway term; = musical term, etc.; c) intelligible abbreviations; d) excellent and clear arrangement of the long articles; e) careful distinction of the different meanings of a word, often indicated by a synonymous expression or some other explanatory word, so as to remove all doubts that the reader might have with regard to correct usage or shades of meaning.

Outward appearance of the Fonolexika.

The favourable reception which the Fonolexika Langenscheidt have met with up to now in leading cir cles is partly to be attributed to the clear type employed.

An expert, a teacher of a Swiss school, writes to us:. Scholars and teachers are full of praise of the extraordi nary fine and clear type and print as well as the excellent arrangement of the Fonolexika Langenscheidt. To obtain a "Langenscheidt" instead of a., with its sight-killing print, is looked upon as a direct reward in my class."

The dictionaries are printed on a tough paper of good quality. The binding is strong and neat, and the books will not come to pieces after a short time as is the case with some cheap works of this kind.

Opinions on Fonolexika Langenscheidt.

I have recommended the English Dictionary in the past and shall have much pleasure in doing so in future. I firmly believe that English boys in learning German should always have it at hand. F. Durrant-Fox, M. A., Inspector of Secondary and Technical Schools, London.

I find them extremely practical and thorough. I shall not hesitate to recommend them warmly, especially on account of the phonetic representations.

Prof. L. V. T. Simmons, State College, Wisconsin, U. S. A.

The print is beautiful and clear, and the arrange ment practical, as is the case with all your books. Prof. H. C. G. Brandt, Hamilton College. Clinton, lo.

They are by far the best pocket-dictionaries I have ever seen. This one gives the pronunciation and takes account of Americanisms, two features that recommend it especially. Prof. Th. Cooper, Leland Stanford Junior University. Palo Alto, Gal., U. S. A.

I have examined the Hebrew-English volume care fully and find it an admirable work. It fills a long-felt need for English students who are unable to buy a more elaborate book, and I am glad to be able to recommend it to the students of Hartford Theological Seminary. Prof. Lctvis Bayles Pat on, Hartford Theological Seminary.

I find the book excellent. Its conciseness and accu racy will recommend it not only to beginners, but also to advanced students whom it will save time and trouble. Prof. Crawford H. Toy, Harvard Univ., Cambridge. Mass.

An excellent little Latin-English Dictionary which might well be adopted in schools. In view of its size it inaiiages to include a great deal. The Athenceum, London.

MURET-SANDERS

Encyclopaedic Dictionary of the English and German Languages

With pronunciation according to the phonetic system of Toussaint-Langenscheidt.

A. Unabridged Edition.

English-Germ an. Revised Edition. 2492 pages. 2 Vols. 64 Mark.

German-English. Revised Edition. 2402 pages. 2 Vols. 64 Mark.

B. Abridged Edition.

Abridgment of the Encyclopedic Dictionary. 2 Vols. Royal 80. Each volume 15 M., Half-calf 17.50 Mark.

Muret-Sanders' Encyclopaedic Dictionary (Unabridged Edition) is the latest, largest, and by far the most com prehensive of all English-German Dictionaries, and spe cially adapted for the use of scientific and literary men. Used in all Government Offices. Scientific Words and technical expressions are dealt with more exhaustively than in any other Dictionary. Upwards of 30,000 (150,000) were expended on Muret-Sanders, before it was finally completed. The Abridged Edition contains all the words met with in school, at home, and in business in the widest sense. The Edition has been much improved and has been enlarged in accordance with the recent development of the two languages.

Opinions on Muret-Sanders.

The volume is a bulky one, but bulkiness, in the present case, should not be objected to, for it means that the dictionary is made as complete as possible. It is, indeed, a thoroughly trustworthy and explicit book of words, and strikes us as one of the best dic tionaries in existence. Westminster Gazette.

. a most valuable publication, which has been prepared in the course of twenty years with the aid of able contributors, natives of Great Britain and the United States. The English-German part contains a complete phonetic respelling of every title-word, indi cated after the widely-known system of Toussaiut-Langenscheidt, which lias stood the test of practical application for upwards of a quarter of a century.

Publisher's Weekly, New York.

The dictionary is of the greatest value to scholars because of the thoroughness with which it has been prepared, while it is indispensable to the general reader who may wish to compare the two languages.

Chronicle, San Francisco.

We have used, and practically tested, this truly ency clopaedic lexicon since the issue of the first instalment, and never found it wanting. From whatever point of view we consider this stupendous work, we may pronounce it a monument of German patience and scholarship.

The Literary World.

This is undoubtedly the most perfect dictionary of the two languages and the result of an amount of work, study, compilation and money, so great that it is difficult to imagine. To give just an example of the wealth of words containing in this exhaustive work: The word Garten" (garden) forms two hundred compounds, and these, with translations and remarks, cover three columns of a large page.

We familiarize ourselves with popular customs and the favourite heroes of German history. The second part gives descriptions of German countries and towns and deals with well-known German personages. Besides, the work, contains short novels or extracts from works of modern novelists.

The following are among the authors represented: The brothers Grimm, Ludwig Uhland, Fontane, Paul Lindenberg, Fried richratzel, Paul Ernst, Heinrichseidel, Marie v. Ebner-Eschenbach, Peter Rosegger, Wilhelm Raabe, Gottfried Keller, Bielschowsky.

Thesaurus totius hebraitatis et veteris et retentions

A complete dictionary of Ancient and Modern Hebrew

Eliezer Ben Yehuda.

In 12 vols. of about 600 pp. = 31 Mark.

In course of publication. In summer 1927 seven volumes were ready.

Ben Yehuda's Thesaurus embraces every depart ment of Hebrew literature, gathering up in its folds a most complete collection of all derivatives and meanings of words, which the application of Hebrew to new branches of science and literature had rendered indispensable. The terminology of philosophy and the exact sciences, the figurative language in ancient and modern poetry, the neologisms of modern Hebraism struggling into the position of a living tongue: everything, in fact, has been taken into account which the Hebrew language, ever a permanent literary idiom within the Jewish community, has brought forth in the way of forms and meanings of words, amid the most varied influ ences, and during an existence reaching from antiquity down to our own time. Besides the extraordinary wealth of its vocabulary, several other advantages may be mentioned, which make the work an exceedingly va luable one to all Hebrew students.

To each heading the exact meaning and, wherever suitable, translations into German, English, and French have been added. Not only has the composition of each derivative been thoroughly explained, but also the uses of various expressions, together with the historical deve lopment of the meanings, in both the classical and modern writers, have been clearly set forth. Syno nymous forms have likewise received a liberal treatment.
